Greetings:

As I write this letter for 2019, the Juvenile Court is in its first week of gently reopening after being essentially locked down since March due to the COVID-19 pandemic. And as I write, society is undergoing a hard reckoning with the issues of policing, race, and criminal justice reform in the aftermath of the death of George Floyd at the hands of the police. In such a painful, anguished time, to write this letter is a heavier burden than usual, and it feels like 2019 happened in another lifetime.

The Juvenile Court has been working for a long time to improve outcomes for the children and families with whom we work. By linking families to services within days after their first justice system contact through the Intervention Center and by continuing to enact Detention Center reforms, we hope to create ripple effects that filter through the entire juvenile justice system. Our ultimate hope is that by restructuring the way cases are filed and the number of cases filed, the ripple effects of these efforts will produce better long-term outcomes for our children and communities. We hope Detention Center changes to leadership and staff training will flow into a more positive and humane experience for the residents in our facility.

OPEN LETTER

The primary goal of the Intervention Center is to link youth and families to services very shortly after their initial contact with law enforcement. By assessing the needs of children and linking them to services during that crucial window when they and their families are maximally motivated to make changes, we hope to increase the success of the treatment plan. We hope that the services will be more successful in alleviating the issues that brought them to the juvenile court's attention in the first place thus reducing the amount and length of contact with the court and their overall recidivism rates.

Working closely with the Prosecutor's Office, we are also working to increase the number of children being diverted out of the formal court process altogether. For instance, we have drastically reduced the number of unruly filings that we will officially accept by requiring parents and families to work a treatment plan through diversion before we will officially file the unruly charges. In 2017, we had 756 official unruly filings. In 2018, we had 55 official unruly filings, and in 2019, we had 12 such filings. This is a 98% reduction in official unruly filings over a two-year period.

Last May and June, Court leadership held four meetings around the county with the Community Diversion Programs. It was an excellent opportunity to learn from each other. We hope to have everyone share in the belief that all our children across the county are entitled to the same standards of fairness and that diversion services should be tailored to rehabilitation rather than punishment.

The CALM program which diverts youth charged with family focused domestic violence (as opposed to dating violence) out of the juvenile detention center and into treatment continued to expand across the county. The CALM program served 77 youth in 2019. Seventy-two of those youth (or 94%) were successful in their respite placements and avoided domestic violence charges.

One overarching goal of all of these initiatives to reduce early contact with the juvenile justice system is to create a ripple effect of reducing the number of children involved in the commission of more serious offenses. These reforms have been underway for several years, and we are starting to see some progress. The Court committed a record low of only 68 youth to ODYS during state fiscal year 2019. This was a 77% reduction from 10 years earlier, in state fiscal year 2009 (SFY09), when we committed 293 youth.

For those youth who do come into the Detention Center, we continue to make reforms. We hope to unify our entire facility, from the front-line staff to our bench, to achieve our goal of using recognized, national best practices and evidence-based approaches to enhance the conditions of confinement within our facility. We believe that how we address the needs and issues of the adolescent population detained within the Detention Center should directly correlate to how we view the youth in our community; we should see the juveniles within our Detention Center not for who they are currently, but for the potential within them for who they can become.

To this end, we recently on-boarded a new management team with the intent to restructure leadership responsibilities with a renewed focus on programming, safety and security, training, and addressing the conditions of confinement. This has included the hiring of a new Deputy Court Administrator over Detention Services; a Superintendent; an Assistant Superintendent; a Deputy Director of Programming; and a Deputy Director of Security. The Court restructured the roles and responsibilities of the Unit Management group to more adequately and accurately provide supervision, guidance, and direction for both staff and residents. The newly developed leadership team is focusing on implementing positive changes to the culture of the Detention Center by attempting to reduce the reliance on traditional correctional models that rely on a power and control approach to the monitoring and supervision of residents.

OPEN LETTER

We continue to work on eliminating unnecessary confinement, implementing a due process protocol for kids regarding grievances, addressing mental health issues of residents, and trainings for staff that address treating youth with dignity and respect. Long term reductions in the detention population makes all of these reforms possible. The Detention Center is evolving to encourage the development of open communication and trusting relationships between the staff and residents and implement behavior management strategies that reinforce positive youth behavior. We continue to cultivate relationships with community partners and community stakeholders to provide opportunities for success for the juveniles that come through our facility. Our aspiration is to develop flagship programming worth of emulation by other agencies.

2019 was my last year as the Administrative Judge, a position I have served in for the past six years. It has been a privilege to serve the court and community in this capacity. I would like to express my deepest appreciation to our Court Administrator, Tess Neff, who has been an absolute rock of leadership, and to the entire Court Administration who quietly and effectively make the juvenile court function every single day, often under very stressful conditions. I have learned so much from each and every one of them.

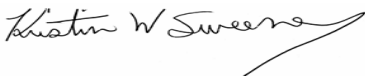

I would thank Judge Thomas O'Malley for resuming the role of Administrative Judge. He's doing an exceptional job leading the court through the pandemic, and I am grateful for his leadership.

I want to thank my bailiffs and clerks for their tremendous support over the last six years. I could not have done it without them.

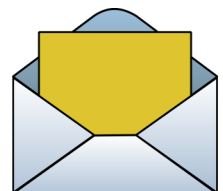

Finally, I want to thank my friends and colleagues on the juvenile court bench. None of our reforms and accomplishments would have been possible without the support of all six judges. Words cannot express how very grateful I am to have been able to serve with these tremendous people.

Along with the report of our achievements, I hereby submit, in compliance with Ohio Revised Code Sections 2151.18 and 2151.71, the 2019 Annual Report of the Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court regarding the number and kinds of cases coming before it, their dispositions and other data pertaining to the work of the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Kristin W. Sweeney, Administrative Judge

DETENTION SERVICES

DETENTION CENTER 2019

Detention Services is responsible for the care of all residents in the secure detention continuum. During 2019, the Detention Center had an average daily population of 106 residents. The Detention Center continuum consists of Secure Detention and Shelter Care Services. Shelter Care Services had an average daily population of 19 residents.

STAFFING UPDATES

In 2019, the Detention Center Administrative team was restructured to provide clear responsibilities within the leadership team. A new Superintendent was hired. A new Deputy Director of Programming was hired to oversee programs and services that include education, medical, mental health, and all programming curricula. The Deputy Director of Security oversees all safety and security needs of Detention Services. There has been further role clarity to provide better oversight over Due Process, Behavior Management, and Staffing. Additionally, the creation of a new role resulted in an Assistant Superintendent being hired to oversee operations of the Detention Center.

TRAINING

In 2019, the Training Manager and the Detention Center Administrative team provided refresher training for Security, Verbal De-escalation, Defensive Tactics, Medical, First Aid/CPR/AED. Staff also participated in NARCAN Training. Additionally, staff received training in Adolescent Development to include adolescent mental health, substance abuse, and trauma. There was an increase of training completion for Detention Officers by 75% in 2019, as compared to the previous year.

The Cuyahoga County Detention Center received training and consultation from Dr. Brenda. Smith and her colleague, Michelle Bonner. Dr. Smith is the Associate Dean for Faculty and Academic Affairs at the America University. Dr. Smith and conducted scholarly work and writings that focus on the intersection of gender, crime and sexuality. Her work has contributed the Prison Rape Elimination Act. Dr. Smith and her colleagues will continue to support the efforts to improve sexual safety in the Detention Center through the PREA TIPS grant.

PROGRAMMING

The Detention Center and Cleveland Metropolitan School District have worked collaboratively to expand seat time for students in classrooms. Additionally, mental health services were increased to provide evening and weekend coverage to improve access to mental health services during non-business hours. This provides a 40% increase of the provision of mental health service hours from 2018 to 2019.

In 2019, the Detention Center was awarded a $70,700 through the PREA Targeted Implementation Planning and Support Grant through Impact Justice and the Bureau of Justice Assistance to improve safety in the Detention Center. This grant will provide continued training, technical assistance, and coaching to aid the Detention Center to increase safety for residents.

The Detention Center has also initiated screening for all residents in admissions for identification of Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, and Expression data in order to identify any needs, support and services for youth that identify as LGBQ/GNCT. The court is also participating in a research initiative through Ceres Policy to evaluate disparities and outcomes for youth who identify as LGBQ/GNCT, particularly the intersectionality of youth of color who identify as LGBQ/GNCT.

The Detention Center continued to receive technical assistance and consultation from national experts in juvenile justice and conditions of confinement at the Center for Children's Law and Policy in continued efforts to improve programming and elevate residents' rights.

What's Endangered Species Got to do with You?

The reality of environmental conservation and how biodiversity can protect our future food supply

Dr. Jaeson Clayborn, lectured residents on the topic of environmental conservation at the Cuyahoga County Juvenile Detention Center, Cleveland, OH. The residents (see photo) engaged in an insect identifying game, learned how an aquaponics system will allow the youth to grow their own food, and the importance of protecting endangered species which contribute to and assist in providing our food supply. Dr. Clayborn included illustrations and concepts which resulted in the audience eager participation and an intriguing Q & A session. The youth were inspired to further explore the topic as an advocate and/or career path.

Tours provided to Louis Stokes scholars, International visitors, University Hospitals Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital residents and students, Public Defenders staff, Court new hires and prospective volunteers.

COURT ADMINISTRATION DIVISION

PROBATION INVESTIGATION

Probation Investigation has two investigative teams. Team I and Team II are responsible for conducting an initial risk assessment called the Ohio Youth Assessment System (OYAS), which measures the youth's risk level in addition to preparing a report for the jurist that includes previous charges, family history, school performance, mental health, and substance abuse issues. Investigative Probation Officers also make recommendations for various assessments to evaluate specific issues, such as substance abuse, mental health, and sex offending behavior. The Investigative Probation Officer then writes a report detailing all of the collected information and presents a carefully considered recommendation to the jurist that weighs the Court's mission to both protect the community and rehabilitate juvenile offenders

PROBATION SUPERVISION

Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court has five probation supervision units in four locations throughout the county. Supervisory Probation Officers are responsible for the ongoing monitoring of youth in the community. Supervisory Probation Officers conduct assessments and develop case plans with youth and families designed to lower the youth's risk to reoffend. Probation Officers are well trained in the use of Effective Practice in Community Supervisions (EPICS) and Motivational Interviewing (MI) to engage youths and families. Probation Officers participate in a variety of activities with youth and families, including home visits, school visits, court hearings, and community and collateral contacts. Additionally, Probation Officers work closely with school officials, law enforcement, and community stakeholders to not only address problems and concerns, but to also link families to their neighborhood and community to foster positive relationships. The Ohio Youth Assessment System (OYAS) is also utilized in supervision to track progress and reassess case planning needs. Probation Officers use a variety of graduated sanctions and rewards aimed at encouraging positive behavior and correcting negative behavior. The overarching goal of community supervision is to provide interventions that identify and develop youth and family strengths while building supports to sustain and support positive change.

PROBATION SUPPORT SERVICES

The essential purpose of this unit is to provide support to families and youth being placed on probation. This unit is responsible for assisting court room staff, including the jurist, probation officers, and youth, along with their families, to ensure accurate interpretation of the Court's probation orders. Youths who are adjudicated delinquent for committing a felony offense are required to submit DNA samples; this unit obtains and submits those samples to the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation. This unit also collects fingerprints and sends them to the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigations for all qualifying charges as required by law. When a youth is committed to ODYS, this unit will interview the youth's family, prepare the required documents, and aid the approval process for the youth's admission and transportation. The unit provides customer service and probation information for incoming calls through the court's general phone line. Social history records are created, maintained, and tracked for accountability within the unit. It is also the responsibility of this unit to destroy records based on sealing and expungement requests or reaching the age of majority.

PLACEMENT AFTERCARE

Residential Placement is out-of-home therapeutic placement for youth needing the most intensive level of services. All the facilities used by the Court are licensed by the State of Ohio and are staff secure, providing intensive counseling and supervision 24-hours-a-day, 7-days-a-week. Youth placed in residential treatment are typically youth who have not adjusted well to community-based services. Removing a youth from his/her home is always a difficult decision. The Court's goal is to work with youth and their families in the least restrictive environment and to only place a youth out of home after community-based resources have been exhausted.

Services in placement include, but are not limited to:

- Individual, group, anger management, sex offender, chemical dependency, and family counseling.
- Mental health care, psychological and psychiatric evaluations and monitoring.
- Medication evaluation and monitoring.
- Educational services including special education, GED preparation & vocational education.

OHIO YOUTH ASSESSMENT SYSTEM (OYAS)

The OYAS is an Ohio-specific juvenile justice assessment system developed by the Ohio Department of Youth Services, the University of Cincinnati, Ohio juvenile courts, community corrections facilities, and other community programs. The development of this instrument was based on the need to create a risk/needs assessment that provided the juvenile justice system with a standardized process of evaluating the criminogenic needs and risks of the youth. The OYAS contains five assessment tools: Diversion, Detention, Disposition, Residential, and Re-entry. While the tools give an overall picture of risk to reoffend, the disposition tool also determines the areas that present the greatest risk and are the best predictors of further delinquency.

The OYAS gives probation staff the ability to focus interventions on areas of highest risk, such as: family and living arrangements, peers and social support networks, education and employment, pro-social skills, substance abuse/mental health, and personality and criminal values, beliefs, and attitudes.

EFFECTIVE PRACTICE IN COMMUNITY SUPERVISION (EPICS)

The Court's Probation Officers utilize EPICS in all of their interactions with moderate and high risk youths and their families. EPICS is a research-based model that combines intervention strategies with community supervision. The purpose of EPICS is to structure visits with youth in a way that ensure the application of principles of effective intervention in our community supervision practices. The model is designed to use a combination of monitoring, referrals, and face to face interactions to provide the youths with the correct dosage of treatment according to risk level and make the best possible use of time to develop a collaborative working relationship. Cuyahoga County Juvenile Probation Staff completed EPICS training in 2011 and have fully implemented the model into their daily practice. In 2012, selected employees were trained by the University of Cincinnati to become trainers in the model, and staff that were already trained continue to have refreshers to ensure our fidelity to the model.

MOTIVATIONAL INTERVIEWING (MI)

Motivational Interviewing (MI) is an evidence-based treatment that addresses ambivalence to change. It is a conversational approach designed to help people identify their readiness, willingness, and ability to change and to make use of their own change-talk. MI is a core component of evidence-based practices, and emerging best practices in criminal justice. MI is a firm, fair, and consistent stance where probation officers work to form a positive, collaborative relationship with their clients while holding them accountable. All probation officers were trained in MI in 2015. MI works well with EPICS as a client's willingness to change increases; the EPICS model provides them the tools and skills to do so.

SPECIALIZED DOCKETS

During 2019, the Court continued its specialized dockets: Juvenile Drug Court, Family Drug Court, Phoenix Court, and Re-entry Court. Specialized dockets are valuable with their ability to focus on the special needs of the population it serves, resulting in successful outcomes for the families involved. Juvenile Drug Court and Family Drug Court's certifications were renewed by the Supreme Court.

Juvenile Drug Court requires participants to attend regularly scheduled court hearings, attend treatment, meet with a case manager multiple times a week, and submit to random drug screens. Graduated rewards and sanctions are utilized as juveniles move through the multiple phases of the program.

Family Drug Court operates similarly to Juvenile Drug Court, except the participants are parents whose children are alleged to be abused, neglected, and/or dependent and are at risk of losing custody of those children due to their drug dependency. This intensive program is designed to reduce the time that a child may have to spend in placement while the parent receives treatment for their substance abuse addiction.

Phoenix Court is designed to divert youth from local and state detention centers into a more comprehensive, community based mental and behavioral health treatment. Services include: Case Management, Intensive Probation Services, access to Crisis/Stabilization bed and evidence based in-home therapy, such as, Multi-Systemic Therapy (MST) and In-Home Integrated Co-occurring Treatment (ITC). The docket requires participants to attend regularly scheduled court hearings, participate in treatment, meet with the assigned mental health coordinator on a regular basis and therapist on a weekly basis. Graduated rewards and sanctions are utilized as the youth moves through each phase of the program.

Re-entry Court is designed to address the needs of youth returning to the community from Ohio Department of Youth Services (ODYS) institutions. Identified youth who are at high risk for further delinquent activity are selected before their release. This specialized docket provides needed support and intensive supervision through joint efforts with ODYS and other county agencies for youth and families. Education, employment, and life skills opportunities are provided in an effort to maintain youth safely in their communities. Juvenile Court and the Ohio Department of Youth Services (ODYS) have teamed up with community partners such as Alcohol Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services (ADAMHS), Catholic Charities, and Cleveland Municipal School District (CMSD) to form the Juvenile Court Judicial Release Committee. The committee reviews cases of youth who have reached their midpoint of their ODYS sentence. Qualifying youth that have demonstrated positive change and program engagement while in ODYS will have the opportunity to be reviewed by the committee, receiving the opportunity to earn a recommendation to be released early into the community under supervision. The committee only provides a recommendation to the committing Jurist. If the Jurist accepts the recommendation, upon release the youth and family are expected to participate in parole services such as Re-entry Court, counseling, educational and/or vocational programming.

COMMUNITY SERVICE/RESTITUTION PROGRAM

Developed in 1986, the Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court's Community Service/Restitution Program was designed to provide positive sanctions and to give youth an opportunity to make amends for harm done to victims and the community. The program encourages juvenile probationers to take responsibility for their actions and can be used as a court-ordered dispositional alternative. The program has job sites located throughout the county to which probationers are assigned. Sites include nursing homes, churches, food banks, community gardens, neighborhood recreation centers, and more.

Every Saturday, an average of 30 youth participates in community service activities. In 2006, the Court's Victims Assistance Restitution Program was implemented that allows youth who owe restitution to earn up to $100 by completing community service hours through the Community Service Program. This gives the youth the opportunity to pay back all or a portion of what they owe to the victim. The program has been successful in collecting a total of $13,016.97 in 2019.

MULTI-SYSTEMIC THERAPY PROGRAM (MST)

The Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court Multi-Systemic Therapy Program has been in existence for over 15 years. The program employs eight therapists and one manager. The program serves 120 youth and families per year. The MST Program is a unique, goal-oriented, comprehensive, and evidence-based, treatment program designed to serve youth with multiple problems in their communities. MST is a community-based treatment program that has been cost effective for youth with complex emotional, social, and academic needs.

MST utilizes a home-based model whereby therapists provide intensive services within the family's ecology including the home, school, and community. Therapists are available 24-hours-per-day, seven-days-a-week. Each therapist has a caseload size of 4-6 families to allow for the necessary intensity of the services. The average length of treatment is between 3-5 months.

Each MST team has a supervisor and an expert consultant from the Center for Innovative Practice who consults weekly on all cases. MST is effective in reducing anti-social behaviors and recidivism. The MST model increases parenting skills and improves school behaviors by limiting truancy and academic problems. It assists in reducing criminal behavior, as well as, substance abuse and association with negative peers.

MST provides youth and families with a complete assessment of the youth with emphasis placed on their family system, school, and community. The MST therapist focuses on understanding the "fit" of the child and family's issues, navigating how to best resolve them. In addition, MST focuses on assisting parents in building support systems and social networks within the community, empowering them to address their family's needs more effectively. A heavy emphasis is placed on ensuring the family's ability to sustain the positive changes and avoid recidivism once the therapy has ended.

COMMUNITY BASED INTERVENTION CENTER (CBIC)

The Community Based Intervention Center is an evidenced-based, intensive, day treatment program. This program has been successful in assisting youth who exhibit criminogenic behaviors to make pro-social choices and reduce recidivism. The CBIC program is based on the curriculum of Cognitive-Behavioral Intervention-A Comprehensive Curriculum for Juveniles. The two distinct parts of the curriculum are cognitive restructuring and social skill interventions, which build upon one another and lay the foundation for problem solving. The program can vary in length depending on the youth's participation; approximately 10 or more weeks to complete.

In 2017, the Court expanded the program from afterschool hours to operating from 9:30 am—7:00 pm Monday through Friday, and half days on Saturdays. This change allows the Court to serve both pre- and post- adjudicated youth, while giving participants time to improve their behavior and learn new skills prior to disposition, increasing their chances to successfully remain in the community while on probation.

The CBIC program is designed to target youth who are assessed to be moderate to high risk for recidivism. The program addresses the criminogenic thinking patterns and behaviors that have impacted the youth's abilities to function as a productive part of society.

EARLY INTERVENTION AND DIVERSION CENTER (EIDC)

The development of the Early Intervention and Diversion Center (formerly the Intervention Center) was a large endeavor for the Court which began in 2018. Keeping with the principles of Annie E. Casey's Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI) and with the goal to improve outcomes for all youth, the Court collaborated with the Prosecutor's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the ADAMHS Board, the Educational Services Center, the Division of Children and Family Services, the Cleveland Police Department, and community representatives to redesign the process of which a youth enters the Juvenile Justice System. In 2019, this project made progress in the continued development of procedures and programming to best serve this population.

The overarching goal of the Early Intervention and Diversion Center is to increase diversion opportunities for low risk offenders. The secondary, but equally significant, goal of the EIDC is to identify behavioral health issues for youth at the earliest point in the juvenile justice system. Through the EIDC each youth will be screened for potential behavioral health issues. The EIDC will work together with mental health clinicians to develop comprehensive services for youth in order to decrease their likelihood to reoffend. This will allow youth to be referred to appropriate services in lieu of formal court processing when community safety is not at risk. While the Court is continuing the first phase of implementation, the intention is for all youth's cases to be processed through the EIDC, including police referrals for youth that need immediate services. This option will be available to law enforcement agencies once EIDC is fully staffed to support the number of increased referrals. Another additional benefit of the EIDC will be an improved process of collecting outcome data for diversion decisions. Historically, the Court has maintained minimal outcome data for diversion programs. With the assistance of the collaborating agencies, the Court developed a comprehensive list of data points to be collected in order to monitor diversion outcomes more effectively. The Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office has secured funding for a three-year process and outcome evaluation that will be conducted by Case Western Reserve University's Begun Center for Violence Prevention Research and Education. Jeff Kretschmar, PhD is the evaluator for the project. Dr. Kretschmar has extensive experience in research in the field of criminal justice specific to adolescent behavioral health.

The Court would like to recognize the Ohio Department of Youth Services, the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the Cuyahoga County ADAMHS Board, the Educational Services Center, the Cleveland Police Department, the Division of Children and Family Services, and our community partner, Cheryl Mays, for the extensive collaborative efforts in the development of this important project.

The Court would also like to extend a special recognition to Montgomery County Juvenile Court for the many hours of commitment and mentorship that was provided in the development of the Cuyahoga County Juvenile Court Early Intervention and Diversion Center.

PROGRAMMING TRAINING AND QUALITY ASSURANCE UNIT (PTQA)

The Programming, Training, and Quality Assurance (PTQA) Unit identifies and works with each department to implement best practice interventions across the Court. In addition to the work with Court Departments, PTQA also works very closely with court contracted behavioral health partners to ensure that youth and families are receiving evidence-based, high quality treatment interventions.

Programming updates

In 2019, the PTQA Unit worked closely with the Probation Department to develop a gender-responsive program called the Promise Team to address the needs for girls that are dually involved in the juvenile justice and child welfare system. The goal of the Promise Team is to minimize mandated system involvement and increase support networks to meet the needs of the young girl. The Promise Team funding is provided by the State RECLAIM/BHJJ Initiative. The Promise Team will be provided trauma training and ongoing consultation from Dr. Bobbi Beale of Case Western Reserve University. Juvenile Court Mental Health Coordinators and Department of Children Services Child Protective Specialists. We look forward to continued work with our partners at the Division of Children and Family Services.

Cuyahoga County continues to collect Sexual Orientation Gender Identity and Expression (SOGIE) data as part of a nationwide initiative to gather data to identify disparities and outcomes for youth that identify as LGBTQ/GNCT. This is another close partnership with our partners at the Division of Children and Family Services.

This year, PTQA brought on Felony Youth Specialist, Kristin Bassett, to aid the Court to effectively monitor youth placed in Ohio Department of Youth Services (ODYS). Ms. Bassett continues to act as a liaison between the Court and ODYS.

Training

In 2019, PTQA worked to increase training curricula across the Court. These trainings included onboarding new Probation Staff, all policy and procedure training for the Early Intervention and Diversion Center staff, ALICE training across the Court, Family Assessment training, Ohio Youth Assessment System Risk Assessment Instrument (OYAS) and Effective Practices in Community Supervision (EPICS). In addition, PTQA specialists have implemented Adolescent Development Training across all departments. New training curricula that was introduced this year also includes Sexual Orientation Gender Identity and Expression (SOGIE) data collection.

Quality Assurance

PTQA staff are now certified to provide Correctional Program Checklist (CPC), which is an assessment tool designed to evaluate correctional intervention programs to assess the correctional program's adherence to evidence-based practices. PTQA conducts quality assurance monitoring for court contracted programs, probation standards, diversion practices, and detention center conditions of confinement standards.

Grants

Grant Coordinator, Melisa McDaniel, was successful in working with all Court Departments to benefit from State and Federal grant opportunities. The Court was awarded $247,247 through the ODYS Competitive BHJJ for Girls to create the Promise Team. The Court was also awarded $50,000 through the ODYS Competitive Probation Transformation grant. This grant will allow for training and technical assistance from the Annie E. Casey Foundation to improve probation practices. The Court was awarded $25,000 from the Ohio Supreme Court Civil Justice Fund Grant in order to provide attorney services in the Resource Center to assist families. The Detention Center will benefit from the $70,700 PREA Targeted Implementation Planning and Support Grant through Impact Justice and the Bureau of Justice Assistance to improve safety in the Detention Center. The Safe Harbor docket will be able to provide supportive services for youth identified as minor victims of sex trafficking through the Safe Harbor Docket with a $191,015 award from the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Grant for Safe Harbor Docket. PTQA continues to maintain grant requirements for many other state and federal grants. These grants assist the Court to continue to provide best practice and evidence based practices across the Court.

LEGAL DIVISION

LEGAL DIVISION

The Legal Division, led by the Court's Legal Counsel, is responsible for all legal and clerking functions and other activities necessary to ensure that court hearing processes are executed in a timely, economical, and all-inclusive manner. It consists of the Clerk of Court, the Mediation Unit, Cashier's Office, Fiscal Resources, Human Resources, the child support, private custody, traffic, and arraignment docket Magistrates, Information Technology, Media Specialist, and 4 Staff Attorneys.

MEDIATION UNIT

In December of 2019, the Mediation Unit separated from the Intake Unit to better focus on the efficiency, effectiveness, and overall outcomes of the mediation hearings. The Unit is comprised of four full-time, Ohio Supreme Court-trained mediators who mediate private custody and shared parenting applications and motions filed with the Juvenile Court. The Mediation Unit also participates in a community partnership assisting with truancy mediations in local school districts.

RESOURCE CENTER

The Juvenile Court is proud to announce it received the Ohio Supreme Court's Civil Justice Project grant to help citizens obtain free legal advice regarding their custody and child support filings. As there is no right to appointed counsel and many individuals are not able to afford a private attorney for these cases, the public is left unaware of their custody and child support rights or how to effectively invoke these rights. This could result in parents and/or guardians not obtaining legal custody, visitation with their children, or the financial assistance necessary to provide safety and stability in the home. Now, through this grant, the Juvenile Court will utilize the services of two attorneys to assist the public in the Resource Center for these matters.

The general public will be able to access the Resource Center during normal Court hours to obtain self-help information, community education, and pro se assistance from a Resource Center Specialist and law students. The general public may also access this information from the Court's website at any time. When the needs of the individual exceed the Resource Center Specialist's scope, the individual will be referred to a Civil Justice Project grant attorney for the legal advice needed. The Juvenile Court thanks the Ohio Supreme Court for the grant to allow our staff to better serve the public.

CLERK'S OFFICE

The Clerk's Office mission statement is to diligently perform all duties with integrity and professionalism at all times; to provide excellent customer service, and continually pursue methods to maximize efficiency with processing files, accessing information, and providing assistance to all.

In its pursuit to efficiently uphold our mission statement, the Clerk's Office has been able to improve on providing excellent customer service throughout the year by streamlining many of our processes with intense focus on training all staff members on current and new procedures.

- Customers entering the Clerk's Office have been welcomed by signage displays that have provided the public with clear concise directives to help navigate and streamline the filing process.
- The "express attorney line" has helped all professional visitors save time filing documents with the court so that they can quickly return to serving their clients and attending to court business.

- To assist with providing better customer service, the Court's phone system has been upgraded to include the ability to record and playback phone calls for training purposes.
- A frequent training regimen for personnel has been added to help improve efficiencies and provide the ability to handle more situations quickly and accurately, essentially enhancing the customer service experience.
- In February 2018, the Clerk's Office began sending a copy of journal entries electronically to attorneys, prosecutors, public defenders, and agency personnel, which has saved funds on postage expenditures.
- Case type (FA) which stands for Family has been added to the Case Management System, which includes child support (SU) and custody (CU) matters. As a result, the Indigency Determination program has been expanded to include making determinations for both custody and child support cases.
- The Clerk's Office implemented changes so that the Front Counter Clerks can accept and process cash transactions for filing of all documents. Customers no longer have to wait in two different lines, at the cashier's window, to complete a single filing.
- The Clerk's Office continues work to provide Electronic filing to all customers in the near future. This function will allow all court related online filings and payments to be completed electronically.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (IT)

Information Technology staff provide ongoing network and desktop support as well as computer-related training for approximately 600 court staff.

The court's case management system iCASE continues to provide crucial and necessary information to police and other outside agencies. Significant updates have been completed, including the ability to provide electronic hearing notices and journal entries to attorneys as well as merging all newly-initiated PR, SU, and CU case types into one case type-Family (FA). The court experienced additional savings with the modification of posting legal publications to the court's website versus paying the fees required to post to an outside publication.

Additionally, the implementation of an electronic certified mail return receipt process, eliminated the need to scan and image the returned green cards for successful deliveries.

FISCAL RESOURCES AND CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

The Fiscal Resources and Contract Management Unit is accountable for all aspects of the Court's budget, invoicing, processing of payments and monitoring and reconciliation of accounts. Additionally, this unit is responsible for all purchases on behalf of the Court. This includes the development and processing of all requests for proposals for programming and services that the Court utilizes, such as negotiations with vendors, contract development and document processing through the County's procurement system. In order to accomplish these tasks, the Fiscal Resources and Contract Management unit works closely with our County partners, most specifically the County Office of Budget and Management and the Office of Procurement and Diversity. Both of these County offices assist the Court in releasing Request for Proposals in order to procure services and develop and manage the Court's contracts. All of these processes generally require presentation to the County Council and County Executive in order to obtain approval and contract execution.

During the past year, the Fiscal Resources Unit has been preparing to transition to the County's new Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP). It is expected that this will be a challenging process requiring both resilience and adaptability. The Court's Fiscal Department continuously strives to strategically increase the Court's revenues as well as investigate ways to decrease our expenditures and utilize a variety of funding sources. Working in conjunction with the County, many of these efforts will assist the County's overall budget shortfalls and challenges. More specifically, the Court has several on-going efforts to meet these goals, including: analyzed spending patterns in travel and other commodity purchases and investigated collections with the Ohio Attorney General for delinquent accounts.
